25X1 6. [REDACTED] Talked with Representative Albert Quie to determine the status of legislation pending before the House Labor Subcommittee to amend the Federal Employees Compensation Act (FECA). Mr. Quie said the Subcommittee was in the final stages of mark up of this legislation. He said there was general agreement to eliminate a dollar maximum limitation on benefits in accordance with our suggestion and complete agreement that all retirement systems should be treated alike. This would mean that CIA employees who retire under our retirement system would be able to receive certain FECA benefits in addition to their retirement annuity as is presently the case with Civil Service retirees.

4. [REDACTED] During a meeting with Mr. Lawrence Meloy and Mr. Leo Pellerzi, Civil Service Commission, had occasion to raise the matter of amendment to the Federal Employees Pay Act of 1945 to provide for exclusion of officers and employees of the CIA. Both Mr. Meloy and Mr. Pellerzi had little question but that such a proposal would receive approval upon submission to the Commission.

Talked with Mr. Bates about the possibility of an amendment to the Federal Employees Compensation Act which would provide veteran-type benefits for employees engaged in military-type activities. I told Mr. Bates I had spoken with Representative Quie about Mr. Bates' interest in this and suggested that Mr. Bates give Mr. Quie a call adding that the Labor Subcommittee was finalizing the legislation now pending before it to amend the compensation act. Mr. Bates said he would give Mr. Quie a call.
